Barb Hawn is the Moms in Prayer Int'l. Leadership Developer for Mongolia, China, Vietnam, Hong Kong and Turkmenistan. She hails from St. Paul Minnesota, USA, and has been in Moms in Prayer for over 20 years. She has served in various ministries including overseas missions (20 years); president of a School Parent organization; children's ministries and international student ministry.

Barb is author of "Glory Arising: The Beginning of Moms in Prayer Mongolia". Her passion is to see God's glory arise in the nations and to empower and train women in prayer.

Barb has been married 33 years to her husband Steve, and has three grown daughters (two are married). She has also been mom to three international students. Barb and Steve are active members of the Evangelical Free Church of America.

A worldwide ministry with groups across 140 countries, Moms in Prayer gathers moms together to pray specifically and scripturally for children and schools. These groups provide a safe and confidential atmosphere where burdens become lighter, comfort is found, love is fostered and friendships deepen, where spiritual growth in prayer develops, and faith is strengthened as fears are turned to peace and hope.

MomsUnite! is just a group of ordinary housewives in Hong Kong who understand that being a good wife and mother is no easy task. We hope to bless other women by organising talks and Bible studies on marriage and parenting from a Christian perspective. Come and be inspired, and meet other women in the trenches!
